

What Financial Statements Can and Cannot Reveal About Monetary Transmission to Corporate Balance Sheets: A Five-Country Emerging-Market Test

Quang-Vinh Dang

British University Vietnam
Hung Yen, Vietnam
vinh.dq4@buv.edu.vn

Corresponding author. Quang-Vinh Dang, British University Vietnam, Hung Yen, Vietnam. E-mail: vinh.dq4@buv.edu.vn

Acknowledgements: none.

Declarations of interest: none.

Funding. This research received no specific grant from any funding agency in the public, commercial, or not-for-profit sectors.

Data availability. The data and code that support the findings of this study are available in a public replication repository, cited here in masked form pending acceptance to preserve double-blind review: [repository link redacted for review; will be provided on acceptance or to editors/reviewers on request].

ORCID. [to be added by the author, if available: <https://orcid.org>]

---

Submission note. Journal of International Financial Management & Accounting operates double-blind peer review. This file carries all identifying information; the manuscript file contains none, including in its references, tables, figures and acknowledgements.

Declaration of generative AI. A statement is included in the manuscript file, before the reference list. The wording there is a default and can be revised by the author before submission.

Author biography (outstanding item). This journal's cover letter must include a short biography of each author (max. 150 words); no separate Vitae file or photograph is required. No biography is included here: it should be written and supplied by the author, not fabricated on their behalf. This must be added to the cover letter before submission.